

SHORT ON EXPERIENCE?

At Averitt, we offer a training program for drivers who hold a Class A CDL but don't meet our full experience requirements. Through this program, you'll gain the experience you need by working with one of our team's top professionals — an Averitt driver trainer! Since the length of the course is based on your previous driving experience, you can be driving solo in as little as one week. You'll also attend one of our driver development centers to fine tune your backing and turning skills.
